TOLERANCE Differences between the colours, materials and finishes shown in the catalogue and samples and those on the finished Products are not considered defects. Any differences with respect to the sample collection should not be considered defects but rather virtues that make each and every piece entirely unique and original. Claims are not generally accepted for differences in quality owing to the nature of the material itself.

MAINTENANCE Consult the Product Sheets of the individual materials. As a general rule, avoid putting the furniture near sources of heat or humidity. Clean it using a soft, dry cloth. All parts of the furniture must always be kept dry. Do not use steel wool, wire brushes, or any other abrasive product or products containing alcohol or solvents (acetone, trichloroethylene or ammonia). Otherwise, no liability for any damage caused by incorrect cleaning or maintenance shall be accepted.

These values are given in good faith but are merely indicative; they are not in any way binding.
The use of the product must be considered according to what you want to create. No liability is accepted for inappropriate use.
Any discrepancies with the price list currently in force cannot be cause for complaint.
